

European Judicial Network

The EJM website:
www.ejn-crimjust.europa.eu

EJM Website background

- Objective: making information available that is practical, useful and essential for the day to day operation of the national judicial authorities
- One of the most important attributes of the Network, set out in Article 3, Line c) of the Joint Action and reinforced by the Council Decision on the European Judicial Network in Articles 3c), 7 and 8.
- The construction of the so-called Network tools started before the EJM itself.
- The EJM website begun, was based in and until 2004 it was administered from Portugal.
- Since June 2005 the EJM website is administrated by the EJM Secretariat placed at Eurojust headquarters, in The Hague.
- The EJM website can be accessed thanks to the following link: www.ejn-crimjust.europa.eu
- These tools are used not only by the Contact Points but also by the judicial authorities from all the MS
- The EJM IT tools are composed of the List of Contact Points, the Legal Instruments, the Fiches Belges, the European Judicial Atlas (commonly known as the Atlas), the EAW Atlas, the Solon, the Compendium and the Forms section.

Fiches Belges

- Initiative of the Belgian Ministry of Justice in 1997.
- This Tool contains legal, procedural and practical information relating to the most frequently requested investigative measures with regard to judicial cooperation in criminal matters.
- Two key ideas: increase mutual understanding of the different criminal procedure systems; and construct a practical tool that would address the needs of those practitioners who work in the area of international judicial cooperation in criminal matters.
